

How is your money spent? Your council tax explained

Dear resident,
Hillingdon Council has once again frozen the Hillingdon element of council tax for all residents for a 10th successive year and a 12th year for over-65s. For the third year running, the council has also declined to raise tax through charging the social care precept.

You will see an increase in your bill this year as the Mayor of London has increased the precept that he sets for the services he and the GLA have responsibility to deliver.

Despite reductions in central government funding and a growing population, and at a time where other local authorities are not only raising taxes but also cutting services, our policy of sound financial management and good business practice is enabling us to freeze council tax and continue investing in high quality services and facilities for Hillingdon residents.

Parking charges will remain frozen and the council has continued its policy of benchmarking its fees and charges against those of neighbouring authorities and other service providers, with charges being set at a maximum of 90 per cent of what those authorities are charging.

We are ensuring that you have access to high quality leisure facilities. Our libraries, leisure centres, theatres and heritage sites offer a wide range of services and event programmes for residents of all ages. All of our libraries and leisure centres are set to be enhanced through boroughwide refurbishment programmes and a new swimming pool is planned for the Yiewsley and West Drayton area. The council has also provided a variety of new or refurbished playgrounds, bowling clubhouses and outdoor gyms across Hillingdon and this is set to continue. The new state-of-the-art visitor and exhibition centre at the Battle of Britain Bunker will open to the public in March, offering a range of exhibits and an opportunity to learn more about the invaluable part the bunker played in our country's history. There will also be events to mark the centenary of the founding of the RAF and the end of the First World War.

Supporting our older residents is extremely important to us and services for over-65s continue, including free burglar alarms, free swimming and swimming lessons, free allotments, tea dances and exercise sessions, heater loan scheme, our Brown Badge parking scheme and the supported outings and activities on offer at a range of dining clubs, community groups and associations. Over-80s continue to receive the TeleCareLine service free of charge, which helps them to maintain their independence at home. The council is also building new extra-care flats for older residents.

Education is another council priority and our school building and expansion programme, one of the largest in London, is ensuring that every child in Hillingdon is offered a primary or secondary place close to where they live.

During the last financial year, the council invested in the highway resurfacing programme to maintain your roads and pavements. Supporting your high streets and boosting the local businesses within them remains a priority and regeneration projects are ongoing in Hayes, Uxbridge, Eastcote, Hillingdon, Yiewsley and West Drayton to give you high streets you can feel proud of and want to visit. Work is drawing to an end on the £6 million Hayes regeneration project, which was the largest of its kind ever undertaken by the council, and has brought major upgrades to roads and shopping areas. Our HillingdonFirst scheme, now in its 10th year, continues to provide residents with preferential rates for parking and leisure facilities, free library membership and champions local businesses by giving them the opportunity to provide residents with discounts to boost their business.

Hillingdon is one of the top performing London boroughs for recycling and the council is continuing to provide free easy to use weekly waste and recycling collections, including green waste, food and textiles. A new free of charge bulky waste collection service is now being made available to all residents and we will introduce a number of initiatives to reduce the use of plastic bottles and cups.

The borough retained its reputation as one of the greenest boroughs in the country, receiving more Green Flag awards for parks and green spaces in 2017 than any other local authority in the UK for the fifth year running - 47 Green Flags in total. Last year, Hillingdon also won Gold in both of the London and Britain in Bloom competitions and the Large City category (representing London) for the first time.

There are still financially challenging times ahead for all local authorities but here in Hillingdon, our sound financial management allows us to continue to deliver high quality services and facilities and put our residents first and at the heart of all that we do.

Your council tax

This booklet contains information about your council tax for the financial year beginning on 1 April 2018. It tells you how much you will pay, how the money will be used and how much goes to other organisations, such as the Greater London Authority (GLA), which is headed by the Mayor of London.

Every house in the country receives a council tax bill. Whether you live in a house or a flat, own your own house or rent, everyone has to pay council tax, which helps to pay for the services that Hillingdon Council delivers for local people – everything from leisure centres, young people's centres, children's centres and libraries to waste and recycling, parks, keeping you safe, services for the elderly and housing.

We continue to put our residents first by working hard to keep your council tax as low as possible and, for the 10th year running, we have frozen council tax in Hillingdon. Table 1 shows the amount you will pay for Hillingdon Council's services and how much you will pay to the GLA, which includes the police and fire service.

Valuation of properties and valuation banding appeals

All homes, including houses, flats, mobile homes and houseboats, must pay council tax. Every property is placed in a valuation band for England by the listing officer at the Valuation Office Agency (VOA) for HM Revenue and Customs. Your council tax bill shows which band your property is in, based on the expected sale price as at 1 April 1991.

If you have an enquiry about the banding of your property or wish to appeal against it, please contact the VOA via www.gov.uk/voa/contact or call the VOA centralised switchboard on 03000 501 501.

Council tax appeals

You can appeal against your council tax if you think:

- you are not the resident or owner
- your property is exempt
- there has been a mistake in calculating your bill

If you want to appeal, you must tell us in writing, giving the reasons why you are appealing.

You must continue to pay your council tax while your appeal is being dealt with. We will refund any money that you have overpaid, if your appeal is successful.

Discounts for over-65s

Hillingdon Council offers a council tax discount, if:

- you, or your partner, are 65 or over on 1 April 2018
- you are living in a property in the London Borough of Hillingdon and responsible for paying the council tax and
- you do not receive a council tax reduction

If you think you may be entitled to the over-65s discount and it is not already shown on your bill please contact us on 0300 123 1384.

Are you entitled to a reduction?

In some cases, you may be entitled to a reduction. If you are the only adult living in a property, you may be entitled to a 25 per cent discount. We work out your council tax based on at least two adults living at the property. However, the following people are not counted for council tax purposes, which may entitle you to a reduction, even if you do not live alone:

- full-time students, student nurses, apprentices (earning less than £195 a week) and youth training trainees
- 18 and 19 year olds who are in, or who have just left, a course of education for the period 1 May to 31 October in any year
- patients in hospital and people looked after in a care home
- people who are severely mentally impaired
- those staying in certain hostels or night shelters
- care workers on low pay, working for charities
- people caring for someone with a disability who is not a spouse, partner or child under 18 years of age
- members of visiting armed forces and certain international institutions
- members of religious communities (monks and nuns)
- people in prison (unless sentenced for non-payment of council tax or a fine)

If your property has an annexe that is occupied by a relative, you may be entitled to a 50 per cent reduction in the amount of council tax you have to pay.

If you think you qualify please contact us on 0300 123 1384.

Discounts for empty homes

A discount of 100 per cent will be applied to a property that is unoccupied and substantially unfurnished, including newly-built property for up to 21 days (prescribed Class C). The discount is reduced to zero per cent after 21 days, which means that the full council tax will be payable if the property remains empty after 21 days. Similarly, a 100 per cent discount will be applied to a property that is undergoing (or requires) major repair work or is being structurally altered for a period of 21 days (prescribed Class D). Thereafter, the full council tax will be due on the property after 21 days.

The council will only award a discount when the position has been verified. It is, therefore, important to advise the council as soon as your property becomes empty.

Second homes and furnished properties that are not used as a sole or main residence do not attract a discount.

Exemptions

The following unoccupied properties are exempt from council tax:

- previously occupied and owned by a charity (exempt for up to six months)
- was last occupied by someone who has gone into prison (unless sentenced for non-payment of council tax or a fine)
- was last occupied by someone who has gone into hospital or a nursing home to receive personal care
- where probate or letters of administration are awaited (exempt for up to six months after either have been granted)
- where occupation is prohibited by law
- is waiting to be occupied by a minister of religion
- where the previous occupier has moved elsewhere (other than hospital or care home) to receive or provide personal care through old age, disability, illness or mental disorder past or present, or through alcohol or drug dependence
- is owned by a full-time student and was their last sole or main residence
- has been repossessed
- where the liable person is acting as a trustee in bankruptcy

Exemptions also apply to the following occupied properties:

- student halls of residence, forces' barracks and married quarters, a caravan pitch or mooring not in use and an unoccupied annexe that is part of a single dwelling
- property where the liable person is a member of (or has a relevant association with) visiting armed forces, or is a visiting non-UK citizen entitled to diplomatic privileges or immunities
- property where all residents are full-time students or is occupied by person(s) under 18, or those severely mentally impaired
- an annexe of an occupied dwelling that is occupied by a dependent relative

Certain conditions may apply to discounts or exemptions. Please call 0300 123 1384 for advice.

If your council tax bill shows a discount, the council has made the assumption that you are entitled to the discount for the period covered by the bill. If this assumption is no longer correct, because your circumstances have changed, or you know that they will change during the period covered by your bill, please let us know. You are required to let the council know in writing within 21 days of realising that you are no longer entitled to a discount. Failure to do this without a reasonable excuse could lead to a £70 penalty.

If you are unsure whether your change of circumstances will affect any entitlement to discount, please call 0300 123 1384 for advice.

Empty homes premium

Since 1 April 2017, properties that have been unoccupied, and substantially unfurnished for two years or more, are subject to a charge of 150 per cent. Periods of six weeks or less when the property is occupied/furnished are disregarded for the purposes of calculating the two-year period for the empty homes premium.

The empty homes premium will not be charged to properties left empty for a specific purpose that have a specific statutory exemption, for example:

- when a person goes into care
- a property that would otherwise be the sole or main residence of a member of the armed services, who is absent from the property as a result of such service
- a dwelling that forms part of a single property being treated by a resident of that property as part of the main dwelling, ie. annexes

People on a low income

If you are on a low income, you can apply for council tax reduction on the amount you have to pay. The level of reduction will depend on the size of your family, your savings, your income and the amount of council tax. The maximum reduction you can receive is 75 per cent or, where you or any member of your household is in receipt of any disability premium, the maximum would be 90 per cent. If you are receiving Income Support, Universal Credit (without any earned income), Jobseeker's Allowance, or Employment Support Allowance, you have to pay 25 per cent or 10 per cent (if in receipt of disability premium). This could be more if you have non-dependant adults living with you. More details of the council's local council tax reduction scheme can be found at www.hillingdon.gov.uk/counciltax.

Couples

If you are married or living with someone as husband, wife or same sex partner, you will normally be jointly responsible for the council tax bill. Only make one claim for council tax reduction, which will be assessed on your joint income.

Capital limit

If you or your partner has savings of more than £16,000 you will not be entitled to council tax reduction. For couples, the £16,000 applies for each claim, not for each person. However, if you are receiving the guarantee part of the Pension Credit, there is no savings limit.

Non-dependents deduction

Your council tax reduction will be affected if you have someone other than your partner or dependent children living in your household. The amount will depend on the person's gross weekly income. More details on the non-dependant deductions can be found at www.hillingdon.gov.uk/ctrscheme. You can also find out how much council tax reduction you may be entitled to by using the council tax reduction calculator at www.hillingdon.gov.uk/counciltax.

People with disabilities

You may be entitled to a reduction in your council tax bill if your home has certain features that are essential (or of major importance) to the wellbeing of a disabled person who lives there. These features are:

- a room (other than a bathroom, kitchen or toilet) used mainly by a disabled person (for example, for storing dialysis equipment or a ground-floor bedroom in a property with two or more floors)
- an additional kitchen or a bathroom (with bath and/or shower, not just a toilet and wash basin) for use by the disabled person
- extra space inside the property to allow for the use of a wheelchair.

If you are eligible, your bill will be reduced to that of a property in the valuation band immediately below the actual band of your property.

How to pay

Council tax is usually paid in 10 instalments from April to January or you can apply to pay in 12 instalments. If you wish to do so, your request must be received in writing by 1 April. Where requests are received after 1 April, council tax will be payable in the number of months remaining up to and including March of the following year. Details of the different payment methods and contact information are online at www.hillingdon.gov.uk/counciltax.

This year's council tax

For the 10th successive year (the 12th for over-65s) Hillingdon's element of council tax will not increase; the Greater London Authority's element of council tax will increase by 5.1 per cent. In addition to not increasing council tax, Hillingdon Council will not raise the Social Care Precept for the third year running.

Hillingdon's budget for 2018/19 includes £7.6 million savings and efficiencies, which allows council tax to be held at 2009/10 levels (2007/08 for over-65s) despite significant reduction in central government funding.

What do I get for my money?

The council delivers nearly 800 different services, which directly benefit local residents and the borough. These services are funded through a combination of grants from central government, a share of local business rates and your council tax. The amount to be raised from council tax is known as the council tax requirement.

Further information about the council's budget can be found at www.hillingdon.gov.uk/budgetreports.

Greater London Authority

This is Sadiq Khan's second budget as the Mayor of London. It is built around his vision of a London where nobody feels left behind and where everyone has the opportunities they need to fulfil their potential. It supports London's future growth and economic success, building on our city's thriving economy, extraordinary creativity, tolerance, diversity and openness to the world.

Sadiq Khan will not tolerate any waste of public money, particularly against a background of ever tightening resources from the Government. This year's budget has required some tough choices. It will improve the key services Londoners need. That means ensuring transport fares are more affordable and building more affordable homes. The budget also provides resources to support jobs and growth, tackle rough sleeping and make London a fairer and cleaner place to live. The Mayor will also provide extra resources from council tax and business rates for the Metropolitan Police and London Fire Brigade to keep Londoners safe. This will help offset the impact of continuing real terms cuts in government grant.

Council tax for GLA services

The GLA's share of the council tax for a typical Band D property has been increased by £14.21 (or 27p per week) to £294.23. The additional income raised is being applied to fund the Metropolitan Police and London Fire Brigade. A Band D council taxpayer in the City of London, which has its own police force, will pay £76.10.

Table 5: The GLA's share of council tax

Council tax	2017/18 £	Change £	2018/19 £
MOPAC (Metropolitan Police)	206.13	12.00	218.13
LFC (London Fire Brigade)	48.01	2.21	50.22
GLA	23.80	0.04	23.84
TfL (Transport)	2.08	(0.04)	2.04
Total	280.02	14.21	294.23

Investing in frontline services

This budget will enable the Mayor to fulfil his key priorities for London. These include:

- making transport more affordable. Single bus fares, single pay as you go fares on the Tube and DLR and Santander cycle hire scheme charges will be frozen until at least 2020. This will save travellers around £40 million a year. A new bus and tram one hour Hopper fare has also been introduced
- continuing to tackle London's housing crisis, using £3.15 billion of funding to support starts of 90,000 new affordable homes by 2021
- providing the best policing service possible within the funding made available by the government, which continues to fall in real terms year on year
- providing extra resources to support disadvantaged young Londoners and protect vulnerable children and women at risk of abuse and domestic violence
- providing sufficient resources to the London Fire Brigade ensure that first and second fire engines arrive at emergency incidents within six and eight minutes respectively
- working with London boroughs to maintain existing concessionary travel and assisted door-to-door transport schemes. This includes free 24-hour travel for the over 60s, the disabled, armed forces personnel in uniform and eligible war veterans and protecting the Taxicard and Dial a Ride schemes. Discounts on travelcards are also available for apprentices
- increasing capacity on the London Underground, commencing the operation of Elizabeth line (formerly Crossrail) through central London by the end of 2018 and his introduction of the Night Tube and Night Overground services
- making public transport more accessible for everyone. Step-free access is planned to be introduced at five more London Underground stations in 2018/19 and funding has been secured for a further 13. All Elizabeth line stations will also be step free
- funding projects to bring Londoners together, promote arts and culture, help tackle inequality, improve the environment, and boost London's economy.

Summary of GLA budget

The following tables compare the GLA group's spending for 2018/19 with last year and set out why it has changed. The GLA's gross expenditure is higher this year. This is mainly due to the impact of additional investment planned by the Mayor in transport, policing and the fire service. Overall, the council tax requirement has increased because of the extra funding for the Metropolitan Police and the London Fire Brigade. There has also been a 2.4 per cent increase in London's residential property taxbase. Find out more about the GLA's budget at www.london.gov.uk/budget or call 020 7983 4000.

Environment Agency

The Council Tax (Demand Notices) (England) Regulations 2011

The Environment Agency is a levying body for its flood and coastal erosion risk management functions under the Flood and Water Management Act 2010 and the Environment Agency (Levies) (England and Wales) Regulations 2011.

The Environment Agency has powers in respect of flood and coastal erosion risk management for 5,200 kilometres of main river and along tidal and sea defences in the area of the Thames Regional Flood and Coastal Committee. Money is spent on the construction of new flood defence schemes, the maintenance of the river system and existing flood defences, together with the operation of a flood warning system and management of the risk of coastal erosion. The financial details are outlined below:

Table 8: Thames Regional Flood and Coastal Committee budget

	2017/18 £'000	2018/19 £'000
Gross expenditure	98,788	97,838
Levies raised	11,130	11,351
Total council tax base	4,906	5,001

The majority of funding for flood defence comes directly from the Department for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs (Defra). However, under the new partnership funding rule, not all schemes will attract full central funding. To provide local funding for local priorities and contributions for partnership funding, the Regional Flood and Coastal Committees recommend, through the Environment Agency, a local levy.

A change in the gross budgeted expenditure between years reflects the programme of works for both capital and revenue needed by the Regional Flood and Coastal Committee to which you contribute. The total local levy raised by this committee has increased by 1.99 per cent.

The total Local Levy raised has increased from £11,129,577 in 2017/2018 to £11,351,056 for 2018/2019.

Lee Valley Regional Park Authority

Lee Valley Regional Park is a unique leisure, sports and environmental destination for all residents of London, Essex and Hertfordshire. The 26-mile long, 10,000 acre park, much of it is formerly derelict land, is partly funded by a levy on the council tax. This year, there has been a six per cent decrease in this levy. Find out more about hundreds of great days out, world class sports venues and award-winning parklands at www.visitleevalley.org.uk.

Total net expenditure	10.2	9.6
Total levy	(10.2)	(9.6)

Further details on how this budget is spent and the amount each council contributes can be found at www.leevalleypark.org.uk.

London Pensions Fund Authority

The London Pensions Fund Authority (LPFA) raises a levy each year to meet expenditure on premature retirement compensation and outstanding personnel matters for which LPFA is responsible and cannot charge to the pension fund. These payments relate to former employees of the Greater London Council (GLC), the Inner London Education Authority (ILEA) and the London Residuary Body (LRB).

For 2018/19, the income to be raised by levies is set out below. The Greater London levy is payable in all boroughs, the inner London levy only in inner London boroughs (including the City of London). The figures show the total to be raised and, in brackets, the percentage change on the previous year.
