

Housing advice for ex-service personnel

Hillingdon Council is committed to supporting forces personnel and their families settle into suitable accommodation. The council gives special dispensation for social housing to anyone who has served in the Royal Navy, Royal Air Force and British Army and have not been dishonourably discharged. Applications should be made within five years of discharge and are awarded Band B, when joining the housing register.

Bereaved spouses or civil partners of members of the Armed Forces leaving Special Family Accommodation following the death of their service spouse or partner and death was wholly or partially attributable to their Service, are awarded Band B when joining the housing register.

Members of the British Armed Forces who have continuously resided in the London Borough of Hillingdon for 10 years prior to signing up for the service and have not been dishonourably discharged, are awarded Band A when joining the housing register.

If you need housing advice, contact
@homelessprevention@hillington.gov.uk

